19. Default.

- A. Default Generally: Tenant shall be in default of this Lease upon the occurrence of any of the following:
 - 1. Violates the Rules and Regulations, Tenant Responsibilities, set forth herein or otherwise fails to abide by the terms and conditions of this Lease. Prior to terminating the Lease for either of the above reasons Landlord shall give Tenant notice of the default and a three (3) day opportunity to cure the same except in situations where the default is incapable of being cured within that time frame or the nature of Tenant's default, if not cured, poses a risk of damage or injury to Landlord, Landlord's property, other persons or the property of others immediately as determined in the sole discretion of Landlord.

- Tenant fails to cure any violation of Rules and Regulations or Tenant Responsibilities set forth herein, or otherwise fails to abide by and perform any of the obligations, terms, conditions or provisions of this Lease within three (3) days after Landlord delivers notice of the same to Tenant.
- 3. Tenant violates the Rules and Regulations or Tenant Responsibilities set forth herein three (3) times during the term of the Lease regardless of whether such violations are cured.
- 4. Tenant files a petition in bankruptcy (in which case this Lease shall automatically terminate and Tenant shall immediately vacate the Premises leaving it in the same condition it was in on the date of possession, normal wear and tear excepted).
- 5. Tenant fails to timely pay rent or other amounts owed to Landlord.
- 6. Tenant fails to reimburse Landlord for any damages, repairs and costs to the Premises or Property (other than normal wear and tear) caused by the actions or neglect of Tenant or members of Tenant's household and their invitees, licensees and guests. All rights and remedies available to Landlord by Law or in this Lease shall be cumulative and concurrent.
- B. Effect of Default: If Tenant defaults under any term, condition or provision of this Lease, Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease by giving notice to Tenant and to pursue all available legal and equitable remedies to remedy the default. All rent and other sums owed to Landlord through the end of the Lease term shall immediately become due and payable upon the termination of the Lease due to the default of Tenant. Such termination shall not release Tenant from any liability for any amount due under this Lease. All rights and remedies available to Landlord by law or in this Lease shall be cumulative and concurrent.

20. Destruction of Property.

- A. If flood, fire, storm, mold, other environmental hazards that pose a risk to the occupants health, other casualty or Act of God shall destroy (or so substantially damage as to be uninhabitable) Premises, rent shall abate from the date of such destruction. Landlord or Tenant may, by written notice, within thirty (30) days of such destruction, terminate this Lease, whereupon rent and all other obligations hereunder shall be adjusted between the parties as of the date of such destruction.
- B. If Premises is damaged but not rendered wholly untenable by flood, fire, storm, or other casualty or Act of God, rent shall abate in proportion to the percentage of Premises which has been damaged and Landlord shall restore Premises as soon as is reasonably practicable whereupon full rent shall commence.
- C. Rent shall not abate nor shall Tenant be entitled to terminate this Lease if the damage or destruction of Premises, whether total or partial, is the result of the negligence of Tenant or Tenant's household or their invitees, licensees, or guests.
- 21. Mortgagee's Rights. Tenant's rights under this Lease shall at all times be automatically junior and subordinate to any deed to secure debt which is now or shall hereafter be placed on Property. If requested, Tenant shall execute promptly any certificate that Landlord may request to effectuate the above.

22. Disclaimer.

- A. General: Tenant and Landlord acknowledge that they have not relied upon any advice, representations or statements of Brokers and waive and shall not assert any claims against Brokers involving the same. Tenant and Landlord agree that no Broker shall have any responsibility to advise Tenant and/or Landlord on any matter including but not limited to the following except to the extent Broker has agreed to do so in a separately executed Property Management Agreement: any matter which could have been revealed through a survey, title search or inspection of Property; the condition of Property, any portion thereof, or any item therein; building products and construction techniques; the necessity or cost of any repairs to Property; mold; hazardous or toxic materials or substances; termites and other wood destroying organisms; the tax or legal consequences of this transaction; the availability and cost of utilities or community amenities; the appraised or future value of Property; any condition(s) existing off Property which may affect Property; the terms, conditions and availability of financing; and the uses and zoning of Property whether permitted or proposed. Tenant and Landlord acknowledges that Broker is not an expert with respect to the above matters and that, if any of these matters or any other matters are of concern, Tenant should seek independent expert advice relative thereto. Tenant and Landlord acknowledges that Broker shall not be responsible to monitor or supervise any portion of any construction or repairs to Property and that such tasks clearly fall outside the scope of real estate brokerage services.
- B. Neighborhood Conditions: Tenant acknowledges that in every neighborhood there are conditions which different tenants may find objectionable. It shall be Tenant's duty to become acquainted with any present or future neighborhood conditions which could affect the Property including without limitation land-fills, quarries, high-voltage power lines, cemeteries, airports, stadiums, odor producing factories, crime, schools serving the Property, political jurisdictional maps and land use and transportation maps and plan. If Tenant is concerned about the possibility of a registered sex offender residing in a neighborhood in which Tenant is interested, Tenant should review the Georgia Violent Sex Offender Registry available on the Georgia Bureau of Investigation Website at www.gbi.georgia.gov

23. Other Provisions.

- A. Time of Essence: Time is of the essence of this Lease.
- B. No Waiver: Any failure of Landlord to insist upon the strict and prompt performance of any covenants or conditions of this Lease or any of the rules and regulations set forth herein shall not operate as a waiver of any such violation or of Landlord's right to insist on prompt compliance in the future of such covenant or condition, and shall not prevent a subsequent action by Landlord for any such violation. No provision, covenant or condition of this Lease may be waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing and signed by Landlord.
- C. Definitions: Unless otherwise specifically noted, the term "Landlord" as used in this Lease shall include its representatives, heirs, agents, assigns, and successors in title to Property and the term "Tenant" shall include Tenant's heirs and representatives. The terms "Landlord" and "Tenant" shall include singular and plural, and corporations, partnerships, companies or individuals, as may fit the particular circumstances. The term "Binding Agreement Date" shall mean the date that this Lease has been signed by the Tenant and Landlord and a fully signed and executed copy thereof has been returned to the party making the offer to lease.
- D. Joint and Several Obligations: The obligations of Tenant set forth herein shall be the joint and several obligations of all persons occupying the Premises.

- E. Entire Agreement: This Lease and any attached addenda and exhibits thereto shall constitute the entire Agreement between the parties and no verbal statement, promise, inducement or amendment not reduced to writing and signed by both parties shall be binding.
- F. Attorney's Fees, Court Costs and Costs of Collection: Whenever any monies due hereunder are collected by law or by attorney at law to prosecute such an action, then both parties agree that the prevailing party will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, plus all court costs and costs of collection.
- G. Indemnification: Tenant agrees to indemnify and hold Landlord and Broker harmless from and against any and all injuries, damages, losses, suits and claims against Landlord and/or Broker arising out of or related to: (1) Tenant's failure to fulfill any condition of this Lease; (2) any damage or injury happening in or to Property or to any improvements there on as a result of the acts or omissions of Tenant or Tenant's family members, invitees or licensees; (3) Tenant's failure to comply with any requirements imposed by any governmental authority; (4) any judgment, lien or other encumbrance filed against Property as a result of Tenant's actions and any damage or injury happening in or about Property to Tenant or Tenant's family members, invitees or licensees (except if such damage or injury is caused by the intentional wrongful acts of Landlord or Broker); (5) failure to maintain or repair equipment or fixtures, where Landlord and/or Broker use their best efforts to make the necessary repairs within a reasonable time period and Tenant covenants not to sue Landlord or Broker with respect to any of the above-referenced matters; (6) Owner of the Property not paying or keeping current with any mortgage, property taxes or home owners association fee's on the Property or not fulfilling the Owner's obligations under this lease. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term "Broker" shall include Broker and Broker's affiliated licensees and employees.

H. Notices:

- All Notices Must Be in Writing. All notices, including but not limited to offers, counteroffers, acceptances, amendments, demands, notices of termination or vacating and other notices, required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing, signed by the party giving the notice.
 - (Check here if Broker cannot accept notice for Landlord. If this box is checked, paragraph H2 below shall not be a part of this Lease.)
- 2. When Notice to Broker is Notice to Broker's Client. Except in cases where the Broker is a practicing designated agency, notice to the Broker or the affiliated licensee of Broker representing a party in the transaction shall for all purposes herein be deemed to be notice to that party. In any transaction where the Broker is a practicing designated agency, only notice to the affiliated licensee designated by Broker to represent the party in the transaction shall be notice to that party.
